Edition 32

Week 2 Term 4

Students are to be congratulated on a positive and enthusiastic start to Term 4. Classrooms are busy and productive working environments. Our students make Franklin a very special school!

A SUCCESSFUL KINDER ORIENTATION

Franklin's 'Family BBQ Night' was enthusiastically embraced by students, parents, grandparents and staff. Kinder enrolments are very strong for our 2013 cohort. Our first orientation was about the new students and providing them with the opportunity to sample 'big school' in a calm and relaxing atmosphere. 2013 promises to be an exciting year of learning for students entering primary school.

KINDER ORIENTATION NUMBER 2

- ☺ Thursday 25 October (week 3).
- ☺ 11:45am – 1:00pm.
- ☺ Students class literacy and numeracy activities.
- ☺ Parent information session – Miles Franklin Hall
 - school readiness - literacy and numeracy;
 - school procedures;
 - parent organisations and school involvement; and
 - parent and student classroom activities.

CAMP QUALITY - esCarpade

The Camp Quality EsCarpade will be visiting Franklin School on Friday around 9.00 am. Students will have the opportunity to see the decorated cars and view a free puppet show. The day will be a Mufti Day (GOLD COIN donation) with proceeds going to Camp Quality which supports children with cancer. Franklin's target is to raise $500.

Parents are also welcome to make a donation – cancer in some form or other affects all families.

OPERA HOUSE PERFORMANCE

The Franklin School Choir will perform at the Opera House tonight. Ten months of hard work will culminate with the 36 students from Franklin Public School joining over 600 students from public schools across NSW in the Festival of Choral Music.

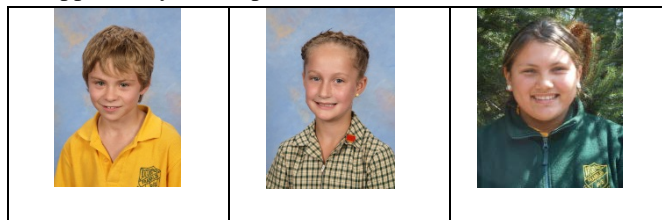

Franklin School is very fortunate to have Mrs Argaet, a specialist music teacher, to train our choir. Her talent and skill explain why Franklin Public School is the only Riverina School invited to participate in the 2012 Festival of Choral Music. To the members of the choir, congratulations and cherish lasting memories of your Opera House experience.
