Edition 3

Week 3 Term 1

Our Kinder students have come through their first full week of primary school with flying colours. They have settled well into class routines, under the guidance of their teachers and, with the support and friendship of their Year 6 buddy, are becoming increasingly confident in their new school environment. Well done! Report on page

2013 LEADERS INDUCTION

KINDERGARTEN 2013

The Franklin Kindergarten Buddy Program has again been a successful, special and important part of the smooth and happy start to school for all our new Kindergarten students. Year 6 students have been paired up with a Kinder student to be their buddy. The seniors have looked after their buddy in the playground, at recess and lunchtimes, making sure they get to know the school and the routines.
